

STUDY

Canada provides foreign nationals with great education opportunities and a pathway to securing permanent residency in Canada.

The following are a few benefits of studying in Canada:

HIGH-QUALITY EDUCATION

- With a range of education programs and highly-rated universities, Canada stands among countries like the United Kingdom, the United States, and Australia regarding the quality of education it offers International Students.
- Universities in Canada provide a welcoming and multicultural environment for international students and have become the global hub for quality education.
- Canada promises a bright future for its International Students due to its strong education programs, world-class educational and industrial research centres, and incredible learning facilities.

WORKING WHILE STUDYING

- Canada student permit allows international students to reside and study in the country during their education program.
- International students can work during their studies for a limited number of hours and full-time during their authorized breaks on or off campus.

GREAT PERMANENT IMMIGRATION OPPORTUNITY

- Canada allows international students to apply for a Post Graduate Work Permit after completing their studies.
- International students may get a Post Graduate Work Permit for up to 3 years and gain Canadian work experience.
- The post-graduate work permit opportunity offered to international students is a great way to learn about Canadian work ethics and gain valuable Canadian work experience to meet the eligibility criteria for future permanent immigration options.
- After one (1) year of full-time work experience, an international student may qualify for the Canadian Experience Class (CEC) in Express Entry System.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ACCOMPANYING FAMILY MEMBERS

- International students can bring their spouses and dependent children with them while they are studying.
- Spouses or common-law partners of international students can obtain an Open Work Permit, work legally in Canada, and gain Canadian work experience.
- Spouses of International students may qualify to apply for Permanent residency through the Express Entry programs.
- Minor children of international students can attend schools and, in most cases, do not need a study permit in Canada.

Our team is here to work with you to secure admission into one of the top Canadian universities and guide you with the right choice of education program that is eligible for a post-graduate work permit after completing your studies.

STUDY PERMIT

A study permit is a document that is issued by Immigration, Refugee and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) that allows a foreign national to study for more than six (6) months at a designated learning institution (DLI) in Canada.¹

Most foreign nationals require a study permit to study in Canada.

REGULAR STREAM ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- A valid passport or travel document.
- Proof of financial support, including enough money to pay for tuition, living (preferably for the full first year), and return travel expenses for the students and family members where necessary.
- Acceptance Letter from a Designated Learning Institution (DLI) in Canada.
- Demonstrate that you will return to your country after the end of your program.
- Comprehensive study plan.
- A police certificate and medical examination may be required.

DIRECT STREAM ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Philippines, Senegal, and Vietnam. Antigua and Barbuda, Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Peru, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Trinidad and Tobago
- Acceptance Letter from a Designated Learning Institution (DLI) in Canada.
- Medical exam confirmation.
- Police check if needed.
- Guaranteed Investment Certificate (GIC) of $10,000 from a Canadian financial institution.
- Proof of paid tuition fees for the first year of study.
- Graduated from Canadian high school or submitted language test results (IELTS) band score 6 /TEF CLB7).
- Live outside of Canada when you apply

¹ <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/study-permit.html>

International students can choose from hundreds of colleges and universities and thousands of programs. Our Canadian Immigration Experts are here to guide you through the process.